LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

C. R. Ellison arrived yesterday from Louisville and was among the visitors at Worth. Thirteen of his horses, including Skilful, the American Derby candidate, have arrived at Hawthorne. The Kentucky Derby winner, Judge Himes, was sent to Latonia to start there in the Derby.

Lamasney Bros.' string of horses will be sent to Detroit at the conclusion of the current meeting, and be rested there until the opening of the Grosse Point track. Albula is still showing slight signs of lameness, but is expected to be in fit racing condition by June 8, the date set for the opening of the Detroit track. Soothsayer, if he continues in his present form, will be a starter in the Detroit Derby.

W. Phillips put blinkers on Linguist yesterday and the horse ran in improved form, making no attempt to run out at any part of the journey.

G. C. Bennett is expected to arrive in a day or two and it is expected he will then have a long talk with jockey Coburn. Should the rider not see the evil of his ways and promise to attend strictly to his business, he will, no doubt, be kept on the ground by his employer for an indefinite period.

C. E. Mahone has engaged jockey Winkfield to ride his colt, Banter, in the Calumet Stakes, which is to be decided Thursday.

S. C. Hildreth entered McChesney yesterday in the original third race, but as only two other owners made entries for the race, and one of the horses entered was of such poor class as to spoil interest in the race and leave it practically a walkover for McChesney, it was decided to declare the race off and substitute the one carded for decision.

H. I. Marshall has shipped five horses, all jumpers, to Hawthorne from Louisville.

Ed Trotter shipped five of his horses yesterday to St. Louis, where they will be raced.

RACING DOWN EAST.

Concerning current features interesting to followers of the turf in general, the New York Sun of Monday says:

"The most important race to be decided during this week at Morris Park is the National Stallion Stakes of $15,000, for two-year-olds, which will be run next Saturday over the last five furlongs of the Eclipse course. This event usually brings out the best youngsters in training and gives the public a good line on coming champions in this class. For next Saturday's race the get of such famous sires as Hastings, Henry of Navarre, Sir Dixon, Esher, Atheling, Hand-spring, His Highness, Kingston, Horoscope, Dr. MacBride, Watercress, Mirthful, Gold-finch, Meadowthorpe, Kantaka, Meddler, Albert, Hamburg, Galore and others are eligible to start. Of a long list the most probable selections to go to the post are August Belmont's Magistrate and Ninepin, the former a full brother to Masterman, which won a clever race last week at Westchester; the Columbia stable's Grazialo, which showed speed at Bennings, but was a loser at Jamaica and Aqueduct; the Goughacres stable's Interlude and Atheron, both of promise; James R. Keene's Careless and Kohinoor; Foxhall P. Keene's Wizard and Palmbearer, both winners; E. R. Thomas' Dimple, recently purchased from J. E. Madden; Green B. Morris' fleet colts Rapid Water, Precious Stone and Boxwood, all having already earned brackets; Sidney Paget's Yellow Hammer, John W. Schorr's Cloverton, W. C. Whitney's quartette, Inflexible, Leonidas, Mimosa and Reliance, high-class youngsters which have shown some startling work; R. W. Walden's sprinting filly Contentious, the full sister to Contester and Contend, which ranks high among the stars of her sex—these are the best, but Winner—Ch. c, by St. Carlo—Amelia (trained by F. Burlew). Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. The Carmelite is a grand looking colt and half brother to the trio of California crack-jacks of a decade ago—Rinfax, Nomad and Picton. He led unextended throughout and was the medium of a tremendous coup by his owner, who was formerly a young business man in Chicago. St. Sever, away last, closed a big gap and is greatly improved over his California form. Rene was a safe third from start to finish. Petit Bleu, badly ridden, away slowly, made up ground fast in the last three furlongs. Blue and Orange ran indifferently. Royal Pirate had but scant chance with an incompetent rider, nevertheless he improved his position steadily after the first furlong. Sadducee was lame going to the post. True Blue retired early.

Overweights—The Carmelite, 1 pound; Hist, 2. The Carmelite, show, 4 to 5. St. Sever, show, 1 to 2. Rene, show, 2 to 1. Blue and Orange, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c, by Hamburg—Berriedale (trained by J. W. Rogers). Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Inflexible today raced in accordance with his private work and should continue to improve. Running on the extreme outside he worked steadily into a contending position by the time the level stretch was reached and from there on displayed rare speed and courage and wore Collector Jessup down at the end. The latter drew clear of his field in the last sixteenth and was apparently assured of victory, but Jenkins was caught napping and the colt's defeat was due to a weak finish. Masedo made the running to the top of the level track where he tired, yet stuck to his work in game fashion. Tim Sullivan runs honestly and consistently, but was outclassed. Jocund got away poorly and was generally messed about. Strephon, a grand looker, made a promising debut and is probably a high-class colt that ran green in his maiden effort. Rockaway is a Californian that will be heard from. He was thought to be the best of the Burns & Waterhouse two-year-olds. Bass is another California colt of high degree which was probably out for an airing.

Scratched—38583 Bath Beach, 113; Stalwart, 108; Donnelly, 108; 39002 Latheron, 108; 38975 Montpelier, 108; 39001 Pirouette, 105.

Overweights—Mohican, 2 pounds. Inflexible, show, 4 to 5. Collector Jessup, show, out. Masedo, show, 3 to 5.

Time, 1:28, 2:48, 4:58, 1:15, 1:40 1/2.

Winner—Ch. g, by Belvidere—Livonia (trained by E. Frakes). Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Brigand, away last, quickly took advantage of the slow early pace and raced into the lead next to the rail and never relinquished it, displaying rare gameness in a long and terrific stretch struggle in stalling off the redoubtable Whitney crack Reliable. The latter was choked in the first half in an effort to place him and went very wide on the turns, but finished fast and was wearing the winner down at the end. Sun Gold will probably beat good ones later on. He still races high and big, but is steadily improving and came along with a rush at the end. Red Knight, away slowly, trailed the field and put up a fast stretch run. Duke of Kendal went unexpectedly well. Rigodon was probably unequal to the weight concession and also indicated lack of condition. Flying Jib may have suffered from the excessive heat. He quit early.

Corrected weights—Flying Jib, 107. Brigand, show, 4 to 5. Sun Gold, show, 7 to 5. Flying Jib, show, out.

39075 FOURTH RACE—Last 7-8 Withers Mile. $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Maidens. Allowances.

RACING DOWN EAST.

there may be several cracks cut loose between now and the day of the race that at present do not occupy places in the public's calculations. Green B. Morris, it is thought, holds the winning cards in either Rapid Water, Precious Stone or Boxwood—all bred by J. B. Haggin.

"It is the general opinion among turfmen that no really sensational two-year-old has been shown as yet, but the season is only just beginning to take on headway. That W. C. Whitney has a powerful string of thoroughbreds—more powerful than a year ago at this time—is the statement heard on all sides at the races. So far he has shown winners such as Blackstock, Gunfire, Reliable, Leonidas, Mimosa and one or two others. Mr. Whitney is proceeding this year with deliberation. He is pointing his horses for various big stakes, just as Gunfire was pointed for the Metropolitan and Blackstock for the Excelsior. Those who say they have a correct line on the Whitney stable feel sure that Goldsmith will capture both the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps, for the reason that he has developed into a magnificent four-year-old after a year's rest and has been improving daily in his work at Sheepshead Bay. Gunfire is already favorite for the Brooklyn, which will be run at Gravesend next week, and if Goldsmith starts, too, the public will follow the 'light blue, brown cap,' with widespread confidence. But the Brooklyn begins to look like an open race. The sterling performance of Frank Farrell's Blues last week, when he won in a romp, covering seven furlongs in 1:26½, has greatly increased the public confidence in him, and several big wagers in the future books have been placed upon the Sir Dixon horse. Somebody, by the way, made the wild statement the other day that after running in the Brooklyn Handicap Blues would be raced exclusively in long-distance events. The assertion was promptly ridiculed by Mr. Farrell.

"The success of Shorthose in the Withers Stakes on Saturday was the topic among turfmen yesterday. There were many compliments bestowed on the colt's trainer, Fred Presgrave, who never could see any of the other star colts at all. From the moment that Shorthose won a handicap from Herbert last Wednesday at a mile and an eighth Presgrave was positive that he had the winner of the Withers in his barn. On Wednesday Shorthose had only 98 pounds up, which was generally ascribed as the reason for his success. But with 126 up in the Withers it was thought by many that the handsome brown son of Atheling would be anchored. That was why the colt was not more generously backed. But he handled the weight easily and ran the mile a full second faster than Compute did it when he won this stake last year. Shorthose pulled up as fine as silk and will be prepared for some of the big specials to be run at Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay. Shorthose, unfortunately, is not eligible for the Belmont Stakes.

"No matter where the turf is discussed, there is a strong demand for the punishment of horsemen who use 'dope' to accelerate the speed of their patched-up cripples. The passing of Dr. Riddle, who was simply 'doped to death,' has brought the evil so conspicuously into the limelight that it is safe to say that the men who make use of such stimulants, will keep well under cover for some time to come. But the stewards will always be on the alert. It is understood that they will have several expert horse doctors on duty each day in the paddock and that whenever there is the slightest evidence of the use of drugs or stimulants, the offenders will be haled to the front, asked to explain and then possibly ruled off.

"Outside of the National Stallion Stakes, there are a number of other interesting stakes to be run off at Westchester this week. On Thursday the Pocantico Stakes, for three-year-olds at a mile and a sixteenth over the hill, will probably attract River Pirate, St. Daniel, Rigodon, Irascible and several others. There will no doubt be a fine lot of starters in the Gaiety Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, on Friday, as Oriza, Julia M., Dovecote, Ishlana, Petunia, Contentious, Mimosa and other smart misses are eligible. The Grand National Steeplechase and the Ladies' Stakes, for three-year-old fillies, are additional features on Saturday. The popularity of racing may be realized from the statement that since the opening of Morris Park on May 7, 170,000 persons, approximately have passed through the gates."

WORTH FORM.

The form of Wednesday's Worth fields is:

$1,000 that we give more winners than any turf bureau, handicapper or newspaper in existence. We spend $5,000 per month for advertising. We'd be fools not to spend $5,000 for good reliable information. THINK IT OVER.

Wednesday at Worth

First Race, 3 to 1 Plunge to the Limit Cinch. Two other specials at big odds. Under no conditions fail to get these three good things.

SATURDAY AT HAWTHORNE THE BEST BETTING PROPOSITION OF THE YEAR.

This horse will be 20 to 1 or more and looks to be a certain winner.

TERMS: $1.00 DAILY, $4.00 WEEKLY, or FIVE WINNING STAR SPECIALS $5.00.

This is the greatest money-making proposition ever given to the public. There are many people who desire to play but one or two good things daily. For their benefit we have inaugurated a series of GUARANTEED SPECIALS. Subscribers to this series receive only our STAR GOOD THINGS. The terms for this series are as follows: For $5.00 we will send you our SPECIALS until five of them have won. Scratch, second or third won't count—only horses that actually finish first will be charged. As soon as we have sent five winning specials your subscription expires. Try us once and be convinced that what we advertise is absolutely reliable. SOLD AT USUAL PLACES.

Winner—B. f. by Julien—May Wagner (trained by H. Frost).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same.
Nellie Waddell ran Never Fret into early submission and then came away as her rider pleased. Lucien Appleby was easily the best of the others. He was given an easy ride all through the last eighth and appeared to be on keen edge. Mayor Johnson showed sudden improvement. He finished going fast and bears watching from now on. Never Fret showed speed, but maintained it for only four and a half furlongs. The others were never serious contenders.

Compass moved up fast when turning for home and easily passed to the front when a furlong out. Urchin ran in improved form and stood a long stretch drive well. Gin Spray began slowly, but closed up fast in the final quarter and was fast wearing down Urchin in the closing strides. Prince Webb had enough after running well for a mile. Dutch Carter was badly cut off at the head of the stretch while running in a good position. This mishap completely threw him out of the race.

Winner—Br. f, by Kingston—Cerito (trained by J. Rowe).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Stolen Moments probably outclassed the field and ran as if she did. Away badly and compelled to race around the big field, she steadily improved her position and after making an almost hopelessly wide stretch turn she finished out the last furlong with a phenomenal burst of speed and won easily. Mesmer, away in his stride, had clear sailing from the start, flashed into the lead next to the rail when straightened for home, taking a long lead well in hand, but succumbed finally to the winner's brilliant rush at the end. Wyefield made the running for nearly six furlongs and held on gamely and is a much improved colt. Ink failed to run up to expectations and may be overdone. Sentinel has worked fast trials and sustained a superior burst of speed well for six furlongs before he retired. Tristesse closed a gap from a bad start.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Charles Ramsey met with much interference and was badly ridden, but was much the best and won going away after running around his field in the stretch. Blue Sea was a keen contender all the way. Dr. Carrick also ran a good race. Cast Iron ran a fairly good race.

Pamplona finished going fast. Chorus Boy ran a good three-quarters, but quit in the stretch. Sapolio can do better.

Winner—Ch. c, by Guido—Sound (trained by W. Cole).
Went to post at 3:33. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Imboden ran to his best form rather unexpectedly and won as his rider pleased after being badly cut off at the half mile post. Mafalda, a splendid looker, showed much speed to the stretch and tired as if short. Loniana closed up much ground from a bad beginning and ran in decidedly improved form. Bird Pond showed plenty of speed for four furlongs. Wigwam ran out on the turns. He is a good looker.

Elastic got the best of a poor start, but was taken back to his field and saved to the stretch, where he came with a fine rush and won going away. Santa Ventura exhibited dazzling speed in the early part of the race, but tired at the end. Nickey D. got off poorly, but raced through the field and fought it out with Santa Ventura to the very last. Father Wentker ran a fairly good race and Lady Strathmore ran a winning race from where she got off. Jack Young was going well at the end. Louis Wagner seems to have gone off.

Ben Lear ran his best race and had no mishaps. Deer Hunter displayed fine speed and hung on well, but was probably short. Sardon closed up well from a bad start. Governor Tanner is a good looking and ran a race that makes him worth remembering. Welcome Light can do better. St. Vitus, Stub and Bear Creek got away badly and received easy rides.

Winner—B. m, by Glenelg—Keepsake (trained by J. Powers).
Went to post at 5:03. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Kisme got off in her stride in front of a tangled field, made every post a winning one and seemed to monopolize all the hard luck of the race. She was easily second best and might have furnished some contention for the winner with an even break. Kittie Clyde ran a good race, but tired in the stretch. The Messenger was given an easy ride. Our Lady displayed marked improvement. Dawson can do better.
